

Salvation

"For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; <sup>9</sup>not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. <sup>10</sup>For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them." Ephesians 2:8-10

Ephesians 2:1-7 describes the what and why of salvation. What happens when someone is saved? "And you were dead in your trespasses and sins...even while we were dead in our trespasses and sins God made us alive in Christ..." According to Paul, the moment we were saved, we went from a state of spiritual death to spiritual life. We were dead and God made us alive by raising us up in the same way that He raised Jesus Christ from the dead. Why would God save rebels like us? According to Ephesians 1:7, "So that in the ages to come He might show the surpassing riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus." He saved us so that He could display His grace and kindness for all to see both now and for eternity.

The Means of Salvation

In the verses that follow Ephesians 2:1-7, we move from the "what" and the "why" of salvation to the how. How is it that God grants this gift of salvation? Ephesians 2:8-9 provides the answer. It is by the grace of God that salvation is given to us through faith. We believed in the Son of God Jesus Christ and the moment we believed in Him God made us alive with Him. We trusted in His life, death, and resurrection of Christ. Then God credited the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ to our account. It is a gift. We do not earn it. If salvation was earned, even partly earned, we would be sharing the credit with God. God has performed this great work of salvation "so that in the ages to come He might show the surpassing riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus." God saves us so that He will be seen as He truly is, more glorious, more splendid, and more beautiful than the human heart can even begin to comprehend. If salvation were on the basis of works then we would get the credit for saving ourselves. If salvation were based on faith in Christ plus some added works, we would be sharing the credit for our salvation. For instance, if the verse said "for by grace you have been saved through baptism," we would still conclude that God is very gracious. A person's willingness to get wet in front of a crowd is a relatively small task compared to the spiritual death that is ours due to our sin and rebellion. However, as gracious as God would have been to save us that way, we would still be sharing some of the credit for the work of salvation. We would get to heaven and "show the surpassing riches of His grace" along with our momentary wisdom of getting baptized. This cannot and will not happen. The very purpose of our existence is to make much of God. This is why God created us. We were made to see, know, experience, and enjoy the glory of God forever and ever. Any attempt, regardless of how noble it may be, to make much of ourselves diminishes the glory of God by drawing attention to our own ability. (Ideas such as: "I was religious enough. "I went to church." "I was kind enough to give money to the poor." "I was wise enough to get baptized." "I was smart enough to read my Bible.") We must live to make much of Him. That is why God created us and why He recreates us in Christ. In salvation, the greatest way to make much of Him is to simply receive what he freely offers. How do we receive His gift while maximizing His credit and minimizing ours? We receive the gift of salvation in Jesus Christ by faith. We believe in Jesus. We receive His gift without any claims to our own works or wisdom. He gets all the credit. That is why verse 9 says, "so that no one may boast." Our boasting in our salvation must be a boast about the greatness of God.

Saved by Faith Apart from Works, for Good Works

A concern may arise at this point. If we are saved by faith apart from any works, does this mean that good works are irrelevant to God? Does this mean that good works are antithetical to the Christian life? Verse 10 responds to just such a question. "We are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works." Our salvation comes as a gift from God completely apart from any good works. Then, once we believe in Jesus Christ and are saved, God calls us to live a life filled with good works. The language in this verse presents the following depiction. God is the master painter. We are like a canvas and He paints onto our lives with good works. In order to do this he first had to recreate us in Christ Jesus. We were dead in our sins. We were like a painting canvas that was marred, torn, , destroyed, and useless - only good for being discarded. When God saw our lives and the way we were wasting His precious gift of life, we produced only scorn and ridicule. But, because of God's love for us and His desire to restore the original intent of His creation, God comes and recreates us by "making us alive together with Christ Jesus." Now, just as God demonstrated His great character in the good works of Jesus Christ, He is doing the same thing with us. We are saved completely apart from good works. However, once we are saved, God gives us the beautiful purpose of completing good works. That seems rather counter intuitive. However, consider our ability to do good works before we came to Christ. We were dead and everything about our life produced only the stench of death. God does a miraculous work. He sends His Son to live a perfect life, to die in our place in order to take death from us, and then rises again from the dead in order to grant us life in Him. When we believe, God recreates us in His Son. Just as Jesus was God's masterpiece in the way He lived, taught, died, and rose again, so we too should be God's masterpiece in the way we live. We are alive in Christ, therefore we are to imitate Christ. The good works that Jesus did are now our good works to emulate. As we imitate Jesus Christ, it is as if God has a paintbrush in His hand and He is painting beautiful strokes of color onto the canvas of our lives. When the world sees our good works they will say, "God is so great." God receives all the credit. He receives all the credit for our salvation. He receives all the credit when we live like His Son. For the glory of God, for the greatness of His name, for His grace to be displayed in my life for all eternity, I put my faith in His Son Jesus Christ. For the glory of God, for the greatness of His name, for His goodness to be displayed in my life for all eternity, through faith I will imitate the good works of His Son Jesus Christ.

The Case for Christ Movie Night

Friday, August 25th, 7:00pm, Sanctuary (Red Roof Building)

A hard-driving journalist, Lee Strobel was exactly where he expected to be at work: on top. His award-winning investigative reporting recently earned him a promotion to legal editor at the Chicago Tribune. But things weren't going nearly as well at home where his wife Leslie's newfound faith in Christ went against everything Lee believed—or didn't believe—as an avowed atheist.

Utilizing his journalistic and legal training, Lee begins a quest to debunk the claims of Christianity in order to save his crumbling marriage. Chasing down the biggest story of his career, Lee comes face-to-face with unexpected results that could change everything he knows to be true. Based on Lee Strobel's award-winning bestselling book and starring Mike Vogel, Erika Christensen, Faye Dunaway, and Robert Forster.

Youth Ministry

How is August here?! It feels like we just started May! Well, we have a lot of awesome events coming up in August that I know you will want to be a part of:

Starting July 31st thru August 4th, we will be having Fast week. Fast week will consist of two separate fasts. The first fast will be an electronic fast, from July 31st - August 2nd. Students will give up electronics, i.e. internet access, computers, TV, etc...

The second will be a food fast, from August 3rd - August 4th. The food fast will only occur during lunch hours, due to students needing to eat. If your student needs to eat during the two food fast days, that is completely ok. If they need to eat, I would like to suggest that your student fast from soda, desserts, etc... The idea behind this fast is not for your student to get sick, pass out, or be sent to the hospital. The reason we are doing these fasts is for our students to grow in their relationship with God just before they go to school. This is a great time for students to seek God's will for their lives, by having a concentrated, focused time on God.

With the fast ending August 4th, we move directly into our Ministry Group dinner on August 6th, at 5pm, in Common Grounds. This dinner is all about our students being introduced to the five ministry teams that your student can be a part of. During the dinner, students who are leading these groups will introduce all five Ministry Groups. This will also be the first night in which your student can sign up to be a part of one of the Ministry Groups. I cannot stress enough how important this dinner is for our student ministry, as this is one of the first moves into seeing our student ministry turn into a student lead ministry. These Ministry Groups will be launched August 23rd at our Wednesday night service.

The last event that I want to touch on is that we have a parent meeting on August 27th, in Common Grounds at 12:15. We will be providing lunch for this meeting, as we will be going over a lot of information. I would like to also stress the importance of this meeting for parents. We will be introducing a Parent Advisory Board (PAB), as well as information about camp fundraising and DNOW.

COMING EVENTS

- August 18th - Ice skating at the Parks Mall. We will meet at the church at 6:15pm, and we will leave the church no later than 6:30pm. If you cannot meet us here, you can definitely meet us at the mall. We will be leaving the mall around 9:30pm, and be back around 10:00pm. The cost for the event is $5.
- August 20th - Promotion Sunday! All students move up to their next grade for Sunday school.
- August 23rd - This is the first night that our ministry groups will be active.
- August 27th - Parent Meeting. Lunch will be provided. Please RSVP to matt@matthewroad.org.

As always if you have any questions or concerns please let me know!
